

CATALOGUE

OF

THE ADYAR LIBRARY

WESTERN SECTION

PART II

ADYAR

FOREWORD

THE war conditions have somewhat delayed the appearance of this second part of the Catalogue. Still, we are happy in having it ready in time before the 67th Annual International Convention of The Theosophical Society, as we have been able last year to present the first part to the preceding Convention, and as we hope next year to do the same with the third and last part.

I may remind the reader that the first part contained the sections, I. Theosophy, II. Religion and Mythology (pp. 1-290). This second part gives three more sections, III. Philosophy, IV. History, V. Literature (pp. 291-669). The last part will conclude the work with the sections, VI. Arts, VII. Science; the intention is also to have an Index of the names of all the authors, editors, translators, commentators, etc., mentioned in the Catalogue.

As already said in the Foreword of the first part, the Index according to subjects is a more ambitious undertaking, which will be envisaged only in a farther future.

I further repeat what was said in the previous Foreword regarding the division in sections, namely that "the compilers have but followed the general system of cataloguing and shelving adopted in the Adyar Library for so many years".

The Catalogue of " Books in other languages than English " will also take some more time, and will therefore be published separately, as the work on this section—because of the lack of proficient in the various languages—progresses only slowly and irregularly.

ARYA ASANGA,
Jt. Director,
Curator of the Western Section.
